NORWICH TOWN

Sermon by Rev. Samuel Nott in Possession of Mrs. Thurston Barber—Opening of the Schools.

At the services in the old cemetery on July 4th of this anniversary year Rev. Samuel Nott, D. D., was alluded to as from Saybrook, and also as living into the second half of the nineteenth century.

Ordained in Franklin in March, 1832, he preached sixty years after an anniversary sermon which was published in 1892. This was lauded by the exhibition by Mrs. Thurston B. Barber of Plain Hill.

In this sermon Dr. Nott says: "I have not been kept from the house of God during that long period but eleven Sabbaths—six of them by the lung trouble, and five by breaking a little piece of skin upon the back of my right hand. My hand and life for some time were in great danger."

Dr. Nott then speaks of the dear church and people of which I first took charge. I see them still in their seats.
More than seven hundred are gone to their home. All those who were legal voters in the society and invited me to settle here in the ministry are dead.

Mrs. Perkins, several years I have been marrying the third generation of those who settled here. I have likewise married four of my own children; and what is more remarkable, I married my own father to his second wife.

He then speaks of the death of "of my own wife and seven children;" also of his preparing young men for college, and concludes the sermon with the hope "that through the grace of God we shall all eventually meet in heaven."

Town Street School Opens.

of the singing, while Miss Webb conducts the class.

New Teachers at West Town Street.

The West Town street school has two new teachers this year. Principal Robert Brown and in the Third and Fourth grades Miss Jennie McNamara.
Mrs. R. G. Denby has the Fifth and Sixth grades, Miss Mary Galligan is in the primary room. The fall term opened Wednesday morning.

BAPTIST ASSOCIATION CONVENTION

Large Gathering of Delegates for the 92nd Anniversary at First Baptist Church—Officers Elected and Interesting Addresses Made.

Addresses of a general high order, a large attendance of delegates and visitors, and the cheery hospitality extended by the members of the entertaining church combined to make both pleasant and profitable the 92nd anniversary of the New London Baptist association, which opened Wednesday morning for a two days' session at the First Baptist church. The churches comprising the association and represented by pastors and delegates are Boston, Chelsea, Cohasset, Norwich, Pittsfield, Moodus, Lake's Pond, Lebanon, East Lyme, North Lyme, Old Lyme, Montville Union, First, Huntington Street, Montauk Avenue, and Shiloh, all of New London; Niantic; Central, First, Mt. Calvary, Third and Grace, all of Norwich; Salem, Scott Hill, First, Waterford and Second Waterford.

At 10 o'clock, Rev. J. A. Elder of New London, conducted a short devotional service, opening the convention, which was then called to order by the moderator, Rev. W. T. Thayer, and whereafter the first church service was read, then followed the annual report, presented by Rev. P. C. Wright of the Central Baptist church, who outlined the work of the association during the past year.

The Missionary Committee was the topic for the address which followed by Rev. O. G. Buddington of Pomfret.
Whose church is in the Stonington Union association. He covered many points, giving valuable advice of progressive methods to be used to make the committee's work successful.

Time for a general discussion of the topic was given after the address. Rev.
P. C. Wright stating that the missionary work of the association had been considered the plan of hiring a missionary jointly for work in the two associations, or that of groups of churches, or that of individuals.

At the suggestion of Rev. Mr. Thayer, Mrs. M. N. Bishop was asked to present a paper on the subject of "The Missionary Work of the Association." She read a paper on the subject of "The Missionary Work of the Association."

Officers Elected.

The nominating committee made its report, and officers for the next year were elected as follows: Moderator, Rev. W. T. Thayer; Secretary, Rev.
P. C. Wright; Treasurer, Rev. J. A. Elder; Church, Waterford; clerk and treasurer, Rev. J. G. Ward, Bozrah; trustees for five years, Rev. B. G. Goodrich, assistant clerk, Rev. H. A. Goodrich, Niantic.

In relinquishing the chair to Moderator, Boardman, Rev. Mr. Thayer said: "I heartily welcome to the office. The report of the committee on program was accepted."

The Grand old church of this city by Rev. Mr. Thayer through its pastor, Rev. W. H. McLean. Two new years were introduced to the association, Rev. Charles R. McNally of the First church, New London, and Rev. D. A. Cannon of Mt. Calvary church, this city.

The second address of the session was by Rev. E. W. Potter of Jewett City upon "The Baptist Brotherhood." A forceful way Rev. Mr. Potter told how this movement was started to put the men in the church to work getting after the men who are outside the church.

It is work for the men of the present and of the future, and the boys must be trained to do the work. We are to hold the men of the future.

Taking the place of Rev. George C.
Chappell of the Union church, Mont-ville, who was absent, Rev. Mr. Thayer read a paper on the subject of "The Missionary Work of the Association."

McNally presented the work of the Baptist Ministers' home, of which he is a trustee. He claimed the hearty support of the church and the presbytery for this home for aged ministers.

At 12:30 adjournment was taken for dinner, which was served in the basement by the ladies of the first church.

Afternoon Session.

At the opening of the afternoon session at 1:30 o'clock the annual meeting of the Women's Baptist Home Missionary society was held, with Mrs.
Thomas A. Perkins, of New London, in charge. The subject of the session was "The Missionary Work of the Association." Mrs. Perkins read the scripture lesson. Prayer was offered by Mrs. Jeffers of the Huntington street church, New London.

The report of the Junior director, Gustava Green, was read by Mrs. Perkins. This showed ten churches in the association, and a list of the organizations contributing to missionary work.
The amount of $54 had been contributed for general work, $37 for Alaska and a total of $221 for the purpose.

Mrs. Perkins also reported on amounts contributed by circles, which totalled nearly $400. Mrs. Perkins called on Rev. Mr. Thayer, who gave a sample literature in the adjoining room and advised all delegates to avail themselves of it.

Mrs. Perkins then introduced the speaker for the meeting, who was Mrs.
N. N. Bishop of Boston, district secretary of the Woman's Home Missionary society, and who gave a very enlightening view of the opportunities for home mission work opening up before the women this year.

After the closing of the meeting, and before, and needing a contribution of $50,000 from New England women as this district's share. Beginning with a visit to the boarding school at Chicago, she described vividly a trip through the west visiting home mission stations.

Adjournment was taken and the meeting adjourned at 2:30 o'clock after a hymn. One More Day's Work for Jesus.

Committees Named.

Immediately afterwards the association's afternoon session was called to order by Rev. B. G. Boardman, Waterford, opening with a devotional service led by Rev. Mr. Thayer.

The following list of committee appointments to report next year were read by Rev. Mr. Thayer.

Nominating—Rev. R. E. Turner, Rev.
W. H. McLean, Deacon J. P. Clark.
State of Religion in the Churches—Rev. W. T. Thayer, Rev. J. G. Very,
Rev. P. C. Wright.

Young People's Work—Rev. C. R.
McNally, E. S. Dotson, F. L. Lathrop.

Chapman.

Place and Preacher—Rev. H. A.
Goodrich, Rev. J. G. Ward, Deacon Charles Peabody.

Obituaries—Rev. C. H. Fredericks, Rev. F. D. Ludding, Deacon F. F.
Richards.

Anniversary—Pastor of entertaining church, R. W. Mansfield, Rev.
George C. Chappell.

A motion offered by Rev. J. G.
Ward was adopted, that the committee on obituaries appointed be the one to report next year as well as this year.

The Outlook.

The Widening and Brightening Outlook was the subject of an address by Rev. C. H. Spalding, D.D., of Boston, secretary of the Northern Baptist society. Dr. Spalding developed his subject along the line of possibilities opened to the denomination in the 26 states included in the Northern Baptist convention. In the west, he said, there was a great empire waiting for the Baptists and he gave an interesting description of the Portland Oregon convention, where an impressive feature was the class of men in the congregation, dignified, cultivated, able and active in the work of the kingdom. As a result of the co-operative relations of the three national Baptist societies with the Northern Baptist convention, the speaker prophesied there could be greater unity of purpose and action than ever before, and a committee of five eminent jurists had made report at the Portland convention that there could be no consolidation of the three Baptist societies. Yet the Northern Baptist convention had been of remarkable stimulus to the churches and seemed to have started a new wave of living and of renewed interest among the churches. Dr. Spalding was greeted with applause at the close of his address.

The Church and the Convention.

After a hymn an address upon "The Local Church and the Northern Baptist convention was given by Rev. B. G.
Boardman, Waterford. He called attention to the fact that the convention was a gathering of churches, and not a gathering of individuals. Continuing somewhat in the line of the preceding speaker, Rev.

Mr. Boardman advocated the cooperation of the local church with the Northern Baptist convention to the end of bringing the kingdoms of the world to be the kingdoms of the Lord Jesus Christ, and he urged that the local churches make a determined effort to bring about this result.

Rev. P. C. Wright spoke briefly in admiration of the two addresses given and said he was proud of Connecticut's representation in the convention, and spoke of the importance of the work and of the opportunity could be met.

The Missionary Committee was the topic for the address which followed
by Rev. O. G. Buddington of Pomfret.
